Now, foreign-made movies face full 100% tariff: Trump

Indian films likely to bear brunt of US action

VIVEAT SUSAN PINTO
Mumbai, September 29

US PRESIDENT DONALD Trump said on Monday that he will introduce a 100% tariff on all films made outside the country, a move that could not only disrupt Hollywood's overseas business but also have implications for Indian cinema. The US is a crucial market for Indian movies, accounting for 30-40% of overseas collections for big-budget films. Typically, Indian blockbusters are widely released across markets, tapping into the Indian diaspora who are big fans of Indian stars and eagerly await their releases.

According to distributors and exhibitors that FE spoke to, the US is the second-largest market after Telangana and Andhra Pradesh for Telugu Hollywood, accounting for 25-30% of their box office earnings. Big-ticket Bollywood films featuring A-listers such as Shahrukh Khan, Ranbir Kapoor, and Salman Khan are a top draw in the US, earning a fourth of their collections from this market, film trade

FILM FRICTION

- Move could disrupt Hollywood's overseas business model
- Indian cinema heavily exposed to US market revenues
- US provides 30-40% of big-budget Indian films' overseas earnings
- Indian diaspora in US drives demand for Indian releases
- US is second-largest market for Telugu films after Telangana/Andhra
- Telugu films earn 25-30% of box office from US market
- Bollywood A-listers like Shahrukh, Ranbir, Salman draw big US audiences experts said.

In calendar year 2024, Indian films across languages earned around ₹1,400-1,500 crore from the US box office, with Telugu and Hindi-language films being key contributors. In the last few years, films such as Baahubali 2 (₹200 crore), Kalki (₹160 crore), Pathaan (₹150 crore), RRR (₹132 crore), and Pushpa 2 (₹130 crore) have been key earners in the US. Bracketed figures are the US earnings of the above films. A 100% tariff could significantly dent these revenues, disrupt distribution deals, and compel studios to rethink release strategies for the US market, experts said.

In his post on Truth Social on Monday, Trump said that the US movie-making business had been stolen from the country by other nations, "just like stealing candy from a baby."

It was unclear under which law Trump would bring in such tariffs or when they would take effect.

Experts said Trump had first spoken about tariffs on films in May but had given no details on how they would apply. Film trade analysts also noted that movies today are often produced, financed, and edited across multiple countries, impacting not just the American movie industry but also studios and producers collaborating with American filmmakers through co-productions.

Legal and trade experts said that films are a type of intellectual property and are usually part of global trade in services, a sector where the United States often records a surplus. This makes the legal basis for tariffs less clear.

FACEOFF AFTER FINAL WIN AGAINST PAKISTAN

Why India refused trophy from Asian cricket chief: His online posts, role as Pak minister

India celebrate their win without the trophy; (right) ACC chief Mohsin Naqvi and other dignitaries wait during the presentation ceremony on Sunday

ACC chief Mohsin Naqvi took trophy & medals, will lodge complaint at International Cricket Council, says BCCI secy

SANDIP G

These were the recent social media posts by Asian Cricket Council (ACC) president Mohsin Naqvi that triggered India's refusal to accept the Asia Cup trophy from him after their dramatic five-wicket win against Pakistan in the final in Dubai Sunday night, The Indian Express has learnt. Naqvi also heads the Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) and is that country's Interior Minister. The Indian players, it is understood, were ready to receive the trophy from the Emirates Cricket Board vice-chairman Khalid Al Zarooni. However, with Naqvi insisting that only he would give away the trophy, the presentation ceremony was delayed by over an hour before it wound up without the trophy being handed over to the champions. The trophy itself was taken away by officials.

"I have never seen a champion (team) not getting a trophy. We deserved it. The real trophies are my 14 colleagues and they will stay in my memory," India captain Suryakumar Yadav told reporters.

Later, BCCI secretary Devajit Saikia alleged that the PCB and Naqvi had taken away the trophy and medals meant for members of the champion team and said the Indian board would register a protest in this regard at the International Cricket Council meeting next month.

"We had decided not to take the trophy from the ACC chairman who happens to be one of the leaders of Pakistan. But that does not mean that the gentleman will take away the trophy along with the medals. It is very unfortunate, very unsporting and we hope that the trophy and the medals will be returned to India as soon as possible. We are going to protest against this at the ICC conference in November," Saikia said.

The final on Sunday was the third meeting of India and Pakistan in the tournament. The first two were marked by comfortable wins for India -- and fraught references to a rivalry that wasn't quite cricket. India had refused to shake hands with the Pakistani players from their first game here, with Suryakumar dedicating the win at the time to the families of victims of the Pahalgam terror attack that killed 26 people.

Subsequently, Naqvi supported a move for the Pakistan team to boycott the rest of the Asia Cup. "If we had to go to boycott, which was a very big decision -- the prime minister, government officials and lots of other people were also involved, and we got their full support. We were monitoring the issue," he said during a press conference in Lahore.

They ran away with the trophy, says Suryakumar

DEVENDRA PANDEY
Mumbai, September 29

"TROPHY LEKE BHAAG gaye woh (They ran away with the trophy)." A day after leading his team to a thrilling Asia Cup final win over Pakistan, this was how Indian skipper Suryakumar Yadav summed up the bizarre scenes that played out after the game in Dubai the previous night.

According to him, the Indian players waited for nearly an hour after they refused to receive the trophy from the Pakistan board and Asian Cricket Council (ACC) chief Mohsin Naqvi, who is also his country's interior minister. In the end, they celebrated without the trophy.

"We didn't close the door and sit inside the dressing room. We didn't make anyone wait for the presentation ceremony. Trophy leke bhaag gaye woh (They ran away with the trophy). That's what I saw. I don't know, some people were making a video of us, but we were standing. We didn't go inside," Suryakumar said.

There was speculation that India didn't accept the trophy from Naqvi because they were following instructions from the BCCI or from officials in the Government. But the Indian captain squashed such talk, saying it was a team decision taken at the ground.

"First of all, let me make it clear, no one from the Government or the BCCI told us anything throughout the tournament that if someone gives a trophy, we won't take it. We took that decision on our own on the ground. They (ACC officials) were standing there on the stage and we were standing below. I saw them talking on stage and I don't know the details of their chat. Some in the crowd started booing. And then we saw someone who was their representative taking the trophy and running away," he said.

Suryakumar said his players didn't go inside the dressing room to even take their phones immediately after the match; it was the team's support staff and masseur who got their phones to the field.
